100 Year Starship 2013 Public Symposium Conference ...

The winning bid to spearhead the 100 Year Starship effort was the Dorothy Jemison Foundation for Excellence, partnering with Icarus Interstellar and the Foundation for Enterprise Development, led by the American physician and former NASA astronaut Mae Jemison. In 2013, the consortium was awarded a $500,000 grant for further work. The new organization maintains the organizational name 100 Year Starship.

100 Year Starship - Wikipedia

Discussions at the first 100 Year Starship Public Symposium focused on identifying and discussing future scientific challenges. The event promoted a compelling dialog among academia, business, the public, and government about issues related to long term, long distance space exploration with the intent that the knowledge gained would be directly relevant to the Department of Defense.
