Joshua & the Israelites Enter the Promised Land

At the end of Moses' life, God chooses Joshua to lead the nation into the promised land. God. The first half of Joshua is filled with battles of conquest as Joshua and Israel invade the land of Canaan. However, the primary warrior isn't Joshua. The ancient Israelites viewed this as a spiritual war, and the true commander was the Lord himself.

Joshua: seizing the promised land | OverviewBible

We specifically read in Joshua 14:1 that Eleazar the priest distributed the countries of the Promised Land's inheritance, together with Joshua, to the children of Israel. This means that Eleazar entered the Promised Land, even though he was at least 30 years old when God pronounced His punishment over those who had been numbered from "20 years and older."
