At the end of its second season, Star Trek: Discovery did what could be considered a "soft reboot." The titular vessel sailed into a wormhole, sending it 930 years into the future and causing it to be stricken from the Starfleet canon we know. But while the Season 2 finale answered a lot of questions about the series, more questions have taken their places for Season 3.

Star Trek: Discovery - 5 Burning Questions Going Into Season 3

Question: Who was the first European to sail to India? Answer: Vasco da Gama made three voyages to India. The first was from 1497 to 1499, the second was from 1502 to 1503, and the third was in 1524. Question: What was the first manned flight around the moon?
