An answer song, response song or answer record, is a song made in answer to a previous song, normally by another artist. The concept became widespread in blues and R&B recorded music in the 1930s to the 1950s. Answer songs were also extremely popular in country music in the 1950s and 1960s, most often as female responses to an original hit by a male artist. The original "Hound Dog" song sung by Big Mama Thornton reached number 1 in 1953, and there were six answer songs in response; the most succ

The pop music genre is a strange one in that it's never had a heyday. Jazz used to rule at the turn of the century until the likes of Little Richard and Chuck Berry evolved it into rock 'n' roll and then around the 1980s, after rock 'n' roll had gone through the stages of hard rock, metal, and eventually glam rock, it evolved into what we know today as
