The Sustainable Development Strategy indicated that there should be a presumption against urban-generated one-off housing in rural areas adjacent to towns. It became clear by the time the National Spatial Strategy (NSS) was being prepared that these provisions were sometimes operated over-rigidly.

Sustainable Rural Housing

The future of urbanization will therefore depend on how countries and cities position housing as a priority in the public debate around sustainable development. From slums to gated communities, from overcrowding to sprawl, from homelessness to the vacant houses, there is much evidence that housing is shaping cities worldwide, regretfully, in many cases, by producing fragmentation and inequalities.
