Graveminder Melissa Marr

Melissa Marr's Graveminder (Graveminder, #1) is a woman who says these words and performs other traditional rituals at all of the graves of the newly dead and buried in the small town of Claysville. Rebekkah Barrow, 'Bek', watched her grandmother, Maylene, do this throughout her adolescence which she spent in Claysville. Now, Maylene has passed away, and Bek is returning to Claysville for ...

Graveminder (Graveminder, #1) by Melissa Marr

I found Melissa Marr's Graveminder a compelling read. Well paced and plotted, Graveminder tells the story of a contemporary small town that is both protected and threatened by a metaphysical pact made by town residents hundreds of years before. Like some of the best fiction of this type (think Stephen King, Ray Bradbury and Shirley Jackson), Graveminder captures the reader's sympathy with the ...

Graveminder by Melissa Marr, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Marr is a writer that I typically adore because she writes awesome plots featuring difficult, complex choices. She doesn't shy away from unpopular, unpretty decisions. Things happen, the options suck, and the result is that the characters' lives are changed for the better, for the worse, and in ways we don't necessarily want to see happen.

Graveminder: Marr, Melissa: Amazon.sg: Books

I recently listened to The Host by Stephenie Meyer again and Melissa Marr's Graveminder was likened to it: a wonderful adult work written by a successful YA author. Once I started listening I couldn't stop. I finished it in less than a day. This author seamlessly introduced a fantasy world without bogging the book down with boring details. Give it a try, you will be rewarded! 3 people found ...
