First-person narration is easy to identify, because the narrator will be telling the story from "I's" perspective.

Readers should watch for the narrator's use of first-person pronouns- "I, me, my, our, us, we, myself, and ourselves," as these will usually indicate that the passage is narrated from first-person perspective.

Point of View | Narrator's Perspective | Reading Worksheets

Students read each passage, identify the narrator's viewpoint, and explain their answers. Students also circle character's thoughts and feelings if it is a passage narrated from third-person perspective. This helps students master objective, limited, and omniscient modes.
