The main difference between the U.S. version and the international version of a textbook is the cover. Many U.S. textbooks have a hard cover, known as casebound, while the international version has a soft cover. In some cases, the images on the cover may differ slightly while others will have the same cover image and design on a paperback book.

The Differences Between U.S. and International Textbooks

First, by selling international edition textbooks United States bookstores could infringe on the sale and distribution rights of the international publisher. What To Know About International Edition Textbooks ...

An International Edition textbook is simply the international counterpart to a US Edition. Most international editions have slightly different covers, many have different ISBNs on the outside covers (although some have the same ISBN as the US edition on the inside), but are still printed on high-quality paper.

International Editions - TextbookRush

I think the primary difference is that US editions of books are tailored towards US students whereas international editions of books are tailored towards international students. Otherwise, there isn't really much difference between the two (except price, of course).

Is there a difference between international edition and US

An international edition is a textbook that have been published outside the US. These books are usually significantly cheaper than textbooks published in the US. Offering tremendous value, international edition textbooks are created to be sold in different regions and are often printed on cheaper paper and are usually softcover.
