Facing Fear Trusting God

And this commandment we have from Him: whoever loves God must also love his brother. The Holy Spirit, who is given to us, gives us confidence (not fear) in this world because He gives confidence in the Day of Judgment. This perfect love of God casts out all fear because “there is no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus” (Rom 8:1). Because we have received the love of God, we can love those around us.

Yes, but does David say more about what it looked like to trust in God in the caves, in captivity, running for his life? When I am afraid, I put my trust in you. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me? (Psalm 56:3-4) When David put his trust in God, he put his trust, even his praise, in God’s word. He didn’t pray vague prayers of hope, but anchored his pain and longing and fear in specific promises of God.
