Climbing Up the Rough Side of the Mountain by King, Sam ...

You have to create spaces for your feet and it's hard to control your movements. The rough side, however, has nubby little patches and craggy spots that allow you to grab hold as you climb up or down. The big craggy spots even allow a resting place should you need to catch your breath. All those years, the song that seemed so sad and depressing became bright and shiny. Oh yea, I was choosing the rough side.
