The Soul Hypothesis Investigations

Into

Well, the suggestion by the authors is that we give up trying to understand these things and give them a label instead - in this case "soul". This "hypothesis" is necessarily vague, since the proposed soul is a non-physical thing, which interacts with normal matter in a way which has yet to be detected, although the last essay and the hilarious chapter 6 (heavily borrowing from Deepak Chopra) make some suggestions.

The Soul Hypothesis: Investigations into the Existence of ...

" The Soul Hypothesis is a refreshingly open-minded collection of new essays, all of them philosophically and scientifically well-informed, demonstrating that soul—body dualism is far from being a defunct hypothesis and, indeed, is in many respects more promising than any of the forms of physicalism that have come to dominate western philosophy in recent decades. It is unusual in approaching its topic from a wide variety of angles, including those of linguistics and modern relativistic and ...

The Soul Hypothesis: Investigations into the Existence of ...

Soul Hypothesis: Investigations into the Existence of the Soul is a thought-provoking collection of essays. For my taste (philosophical background), however, a number of the essays are too technical/scientific and hardly address what the subtitle of the book (Investigations into the existence of the soul) promises. Take Chapter 3, for example.
