Caleo (Leech, book 1) By James Crawford Four stars Let me start by saying that I've already bought the second and third books ("Jack" and "Nolan") to this series. I'll follow up by noting that the story is pretty compelling, but as I read I kept thinking "these kids are all acting like jerks," which lead me to remind myself: this is a young adult series, written for teenagers.

With that being said, I truly HATED that James Crawford didn't write about Caleo and Jack getting to finally express and explore their love for each other in a certain IMMENSELY needed way (again, I'm not saying what way to avoid spoilers)!!!! It was an extreme disappointment for me!! Other than that, I loved how he ended the book.
