The American and English Encyclopedia of Law

Interactive Language Teaching Cambridge University Press

In this collection of essays, a distinguished group of innovative teachers and writers describe the approaches and techniques they have incorporated into their own teaching. The articles are designed to help classroom teachers make language classes more participatory and communication oriented. Successive articles deal with the structure of interaction in large and small groups: imaginative activities for listening, speaking, reading, writing, and testing; the use of poetry, song, and drama; how to perform grammar rules rather than recite them; the special contribution of authentic materials; using audio and video as well as computer software to enhance learning, tapping the community as a resource; learning to interact in different cultural styles; and preparing the student for real-life professional use of language. Teachers of any language and teachers in training will find in this volume a wealth of original and practical ideas for the classroom.

A Workbook on Functional English Year - 2021-22

B N M Institute of Technology An Autonomous Institution under VTU Shashwat Publication

‘A Workbook on Functional English’ is a book of a few pages but very rich in contents to provide adequate revision to the students, if they solve the given exercises meticulously. The essentials of the language aspects have been covered, looking at their requirements. It happens that after going to the higher classes, a few language concepts become faint in the memory. So, this will be an opportunity for them to come out of it. The exercises are based on myriad topics under various categories such as LOTS (Low Order Thinking Skill Questions), MOTS (Middle Order Thinking Skill Questions) and HOTS (Higher Order Thinking Skill Questions) along with a Corporate Vocabulary Repository and Tense Chart. After solving the exercises meticulously with interpretation, a feel of confidence will certainly come among them. So, it is apt to say that without vibrant thoughts, fire within, vigorous practice, cleaning mental cobwebs in the subject and esoteric opportunities, it is difficult to have gravity in the subject. It is only by earnest endeavour; one’s task gets accomplished and not by just planning. The exercises have been so easily and meticulously prepared that the requirements of the students may be met with fairly and squarely. It is suitable enough to make the learners interested in learning. I strongly believe that no obstacle in insurmountable. Hardships and obstacles are not meant to be evaded, but to be mastered. I wish the students all the very best for their future endeavours.
