TV series encourages parents to create “magic moments” with kids Every moment in the lives of busy parents and their children can become an enjoyable, meaningful and memorable moment. That’s the message of a media campaign which includes a series of short documentary films , launched in February 2019 on Hop!, Israel’s leading cable and satellite TV channel for preschoolers.

Parents do not make childhood magical. Abuse and gross neglect can mar it, of course, but for the average child, the magic is something inherent to the age. Seeing the world through innocent eyes is magical. Experiencing winter and playing in the snow as a 5-year-old is magical. Getting lost in your toys on the floor of your family room is magical.
