Dr. Pong P. Chu joined the Department of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science at Cleveland State University in 1989 and currently is an Associate Professor. He received the M.S. and

Ph.D. degrees in Computer Engineering from Iowa State University. His research and teaching are in the area of digital systems and he is the author of seven textbooks.

Welcome to Dr. Chu's Web - Cleveland State University

The author, Prof. P. Chu does an excellent job at progressively building your understanding of FPGA logic design, through a series of chapters that gradually take you to the more advanced stages of design in easily comprehensible lessons that require more elevated skills as one approaches the end chapters.
