Looking back over fiction of the last several hundred years, Satan is kind of all over the place. Let's face it, this is one ubiquitous character. Basically any time someone is being tempted in classic literature, Satan is probably the one behind it, from Faust to Dante's Inferno to Paradise Lost. As Satan is a fairly nebulous concept at heart, the different takes and portrayals have run ...

She-devil: The female Satans of genre - SYFY WIRE

The devil looks like a man in a long black trench coat. I believe the townspeople hide in a church and put the children in caskets to keep them away from the devil. At the end of the movie the devil finds a young blonde boy to take, his parents become hysterical and the devil flies away with the little boy. That's about all I can remember.
