Beautiful Girlhood, first published in the 1920's and then edited in the 1990's is popular among homeschool and Christian school girls. I've had a copy since about 1999 and never read it until now. For a book on Christian character for pre-teen and early teen girls, it falls flat, in my opinion.

An encouraging book that accomplishes much when read by mother and daughter together. The chapters deal with issues such as boyfriends, Biblical character traits, values, and preparing for adulthood; all in the context of being a "lady". Karen Andreola has brought back to life the 1920 edition for girls (ladies!) ages 12 and up. Author Karen Andreola
