Autobiography of My Dead Brother Summary - eNotes.com

Autobiography of My Dead Brother Summary. We open on the funeral of Bobby Green, a black teenager who was shot to death as a bystander in a drive-by. From the pastor's eulogy, it's immediately clear that the book is set in a neighborhood plagued by gun violence. Everyone here has been to funerals like Bobby's before, and (spoiler alert) they'll be at another one in the very near future.
