An Introverts Place in the Church • Christian Introvert

"When introverts go to church, we crave sanctuary in every sense of the word, as we flee from the disorienting distractions of twenty-first-century life. We desire to escape from superficial relationships, trivial communications and the constant noise that pervade our world, and find rest in the probing depths of God's love."

Introverts in the Church Quotes by Adam S. McHugh

In his book Introverts in the Church, Adam McHugh describes three characteristics of introversion that I found helpful. 1) Energy Source. A misconception extroverts make about introverts is that they dislike people. This is understandable since we seem hesitant to hang out and try to leave social activities a little early.

Author and introvert Adam McHugh believes the opposite. In Introverts in the Church: Finding our Place in an Extroverted Culture he argues that these skills are not only not required, they are often an indication of poor leadership skills. While McHugh recognizes the need for community, indeed the biblical command for it, he also recognizes that how community happens, or how Scripture wants it to happen is not exactly the way our extroverted culture says that it should occur.
