Star-Crossed is the first novel by Australian author, Minnie Darke (who also writes as Danielle Wood). It's been over ten years since Justine Carmichael has seen Nick Jordan. They grew up together until Nick's family moved west when they were eleven and their lives, apart from one family holiday together as fourteen-year-olds, lived separately.

Star-Crossed by Minnie Darke - Goodreads

Star Cross is a very old Independent Guild that is one of the first Guilds to be made. Its members have not been seen often by the public eye and seem to be planning something by taking unique missions that they either take to earn money or assigned to them by their Guild Master. Unlike other Guilds they allow Mages of any kind to join, though they do make sure to remind these members that ...
