Alternative Schooling Overview.

Alternative education or alternative schools are not really a new concept to the American scene. As early as colonial America, we saw education in a variety of ways conducted by the wealthy or offered to the general population by the wealthy or by religious groups.

Alternative Schooling - National Dropout Prevention Center

SANDS SCHOOL, DEVON Sands is one of only two democratic schools in the United Kingdom. There is no headteacher and no hierarchy: the school is jointly managed by students (aged from 11 to 17) and staff. The school is different in many ways from mainstream education; there is no uniform or even a dress-code

Flexibility and Best Value. With increasing demands on pressurised budgets, schools and local authorities face difficult decisions in the coming years to balance capacity, quality, progression and outcomes with the costs of mainstream and alternative education provision. Academy21 offers practical solutions to these challenges.

Online Alternative Education - Academy21

Alternative Provision can develop a more personalised learning programme. It is hoped that this will meet the needs of the individual student and give them a chance to re-engage into education. Another reason a student might be picked for Alternative Provision is because it is felt that they are at risk of permanent exclusion.
